WHO WE ARE

ELEVATE! is the premiere professional development for primary Pre-K - 2nd grade educators. Our selection of highly accomplished national speakers are either current teachers, administrators, specialists, coaches or consultants working in schools.

Founded in Research

All ELEVATE conference sessions are based on research and/or evidence-based content and practices, and guaranteed to be presented in a way that engages attendees in hands-on activities and models instructional best-practices.

Next Day
Implementation

Every session you attend will provide you with lesson ideas and activity resources that you can take back to your classroom and use immediately!

Vetted
Speakers

At ELEVATE, we set the bar high! All presenters are required to support their presentation content with current research, model best-practice instructional methods, incorporate active-engagement strategies within their sessions, and provide complementary lesson plans/activities for attendees to take back and use immediately in their classrooms.

ON THE MAIN STAGE

#HappyClassrooms

By Greg Smedley-Warren | Keynote

An inspirational message about the lessons our students teach us each day in the classroom. In this uplifting message, Mr. Greg will share stories from his classroom and the lessons he has learned and how they can be implemented in other classrooms. The #happyclassrooms is a way for teachers around the world to share positive experiences from their own classrooms. Mr. Greg will describe in detail the mission of this hashtag and how it relates to your teacher's attitudes toward education and their classroom.

About Greg

Meet Greg Smedley-Warren, affectionately known as "Mr. Greg," an experienced, current kindergarten educator and the creative mind behind The Kindergarten Smorgasboard. With an impressive 19-year teaching journey, Greg's expertise spans various grade levels, including a brief stint in fifth grade and two years in second grade. However, it was a reluctant transition to kindergarten that unveiled his true passion and calling.

Never wanting to teach kindergarteners, Greg's journey took a turn when he discovered an instant connection on the very first day of kindergarten. From that moment on, he knew kindergarten was his calling. Beyond the classroom, Greg is a family man, cherishing moments with his loved ones in Nashville, Tennessee. Alongside his husband Jason, fondly referred to as "The Mister," Greg shares his home with their daughter, Adelynn, and their dog, Dolly.

Recognized as the 2014 Teacher of the Year, Greg's influence extends far beyond his classroom walls, as an international speaker, presenter, and co-founder of the ELEVATE! conference for teachers. A passionate curriculum developer, Greg's dedication to educational excellence shines through in all his endeavors, driven by his unwavering commitment to empowering both students and fellow educators alike.

Personal Climate and Culture. The Choice is Yours.

By Gerry Brooks | Keynote

Gerry will inspire you and make you laugh, as he shares advice and practical ideas that will help you focus on personal and school climate and culture. He will challenge you to be the best you can be in all aspects of your personal and professional life, and how that will allow you to support your students, their parents, and your coworkers in the best way possible.

About Gerry

Gerry Brooks is a veteran educator in Lexington, Kentucky. His educational experience includes six years in the classroom, two years as an intervention specialist, and 12 years as an administrator.

He is a passionate public speaker whose focus is on encouraging and helping teachers improve their instructional abilities. He also has a desire to help administrators successfully lead their staff.

An encouraging speaker, he has spoken to educational groups all around the nation. His focus is on encouraging teachers to improve their instruction through personal climate and culture strategies. He desires to help administrators focus on how to lead all staff in a positive and constructive manner.

About Johnathon Hines

Johnathon Hines is a Pre-K educator and father from Atlanta, Georgia. He attended Albany State University on a full athletic scholarship in basketball. After graduating with his Bachelor of Arts degree in Health and Physical Education, he went on to play professionally in South America (Peru). When he returned, he decided to go into the field of education because he was passionate about mentoring and working with children. After earning his Master's Degree in Elementary Education from Grand Canyon University, he began his career teaching pre-kindergarten students. Mr. Hines understands that a first impression is a lasting impression for children, so he provides an exciting learning experience for his students each day. Additionally, he understands that in our community there is a shortage of exposure to positive Black males and wants to show children that African American men can be heroes in an every-day role, like teaching. In 2020, Mr. Hines made history as the first Black male to be named the Public School Pre-K Teacher of the Year for the entire State of Georgia. In his spare time, Mr. Hines enjoys spending time with his daughter, watching basketball and spending quality time with friends and family.

Dance Party w/ Jack Hartmann

With Jack Hartmann | Entertainment

Let Music Make Learning Fun! Jack sings live and demonstrates fun and creative movements to a wide variety of early childhood topics including: language development and phonological awareness skills, basic math with counting and number skills, spatial awareness, patterning and more. And, fun skill-building songs on social and behavioral management are also included. This presentation is very uplifting and interactive and offers a great variety of Jack's best songs.

About Jack

Jack Hartmann's Super Fun Learning Songs are all about making learning even more fun with the very best in children's educational music. Jack's music is research-based and teacher approved to focus on helping children learn important state, national and early childhood standards. All of Jack's songs and videos engage children with not only great educational content, but with cool beats kids love and fun movements.

Jack Hartmann received his BA in Child Psychology from the University of Florida in Gainesville, FL and his MA degree in Clinical Psychology from Assumption College in Worcester, MA.

Jack began his career of working with autistic children at Shands Teaching Hospital in Gainesville, Florida and then he worked as a social worker with delinquent youth in St. Petersburg, Florida and in psychiatry at Emory University Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia.

Jack has presented his wonderful children's music at teacher workshops and conferences in almost every state in the United States. He has been a keynote and workshop leader at the annual NAEYC and the National Head Start conferences, S.D.E. conferences all across the country and many local and state pre-school, kindergarten and 1st Grade conferences.

About Jere Chang

Jere Chang, an Atlanta area classroom teacher for over 25 years, is an award winning TikTok star with over 2 million followers and is a dynamic and highly engaging speaker. Spending time with “Ms. Chang,” isn’t just viewing a reel or a TikTok trend. Her motivational talks about gifted education, inclusion, and creative thinking are visits in radical kindness, inspiration, and laughter.

Chang invites audiences into her classroom, family vacations with her wife and two young sons, even her lunch box to look deeply into something familiar with innovation and curiosity. Unlike most social media stars, Chang is honest. She doesn’t cover up her teaching goofs, her aging face, or her misunderstood classroom décor but points them out with a great sense of reflexivity and humor. Her goal: to have audiences walk away feeling refreshed, safe, cared for and valued. From the moment she starts to talk, it’s time to get real.

Invited twice to the Whitehouse with 30 other influencers on LGBTQ+ issues, Ms. Chang is an international speaker who draws standing room only crowds. With 10 years in gifted education and three Master’s degrees in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), college administration, and applied linguistics, she speaks on a variety of topics focused on creativity and inclusion.

WRITING

Write From the Start: Guiding our Littlest Learners Through the Writing Process (in a developmentally appropriate AND science-aligned way!)

By Holly Ehle | Writing

This session will transform your approach to writing instruction for primary students by replacing the traditional Writer's Workshop with a research-based method that aligns with children's cognitive and physical development. You'll explore an innovative approach that focuses on short, engaging bursts of instruction, eliminating the need for long daily writing periods. By using techniques like collaborative writing and teacher-led pen control, students can focus on key writing skills without cognitive overload. The process is broken into four steps—THINK-PLAN-WRITE-REVISE—taught in short, structured sessions across a week. Join us to learn how to implement this "Science of Writing" approach and make writing easier and more enjoyable for young learners.

Sentence Success! Explicit Instruction for Little Learners

By Christina DeCarbo | Writing

Imagine a writing world that is developmentally appropriate, purposeful, and effective! Christina shares explicit, sentence-level writing instruction that will build students' skills, confidence, and reading comprehension! You'll walk away with a deep understanding of why writing needs to be taught in connection to meaningful content, and what that looks like in the classroom. Come ready to participate in tons of engaging, sentence-building activities that will turn your students into sentence superstars!
